Judge at Guadalajara Accuses General Manager Clark of Causing Delay.

Guadalajara, Mexico, Jan. 21.—Guada-lajara, division 540, Order of Raisway Conductors, is receiving letters from United States senators in answer to the appeal in behalf of conductor James A. Cook, sent to senators and others in the United States a short time ago.

The letters so far received are from sensions Curtis, Elkins, Flint, Perkins, Borah, Scott, Owen, Lodge, Dixon, War-ren and Guggenheim. The senators manifest much interest in the case and state that the state department will be urged to leave nothing undone to se-cure the release of the imprisoned

Judge Palafox, of the third criminal court, who has charge of the Cook case, credits a delay of several weeks to general manager Clark, of the National railways. A letter asking Mr. Clark to define the exact responsibilities of a freight conductor and to give any information he might have regarding the character of conductor Cook was sent to the City of Mexico several weeks ago and still remains unanswered, the judge lectorship. That Charles F. Hunt, an importer of Mexican cattle on an extensive scale, has gone to Washington in the interests of C. A. Kinne's candidacy for collector of customs at El Paso, in the report in political circles. A. L. Sharpe, the present incumbent, is again a candidate and in his candidacy he has the support of Cecil Lyon, head of the Republican organ!nation in Texas, as well as the local Republican organization. It was first reported that Kinne, who is secretary of the chamber of conmerce, was working for Gen. B. J. Viien, with the idea of becoming denuty collector in the event of the New Mexico man's appointment, but later it developed that Kinne was out for the collectorship himself, and it is said Viljoen's New Mexico friends have given up hope LAS CRUCES WANTS YOU SUNDAY.
